organises

FRIULANO IN CORTO
SHORT FILM PRODUCTION COMPETITION

OBJECTIVE
Promote and talk about the outstanding landmarks of the regional wine world, with its experience and technique, soil and vines, through the instruments of cinema, encouraging the video producers to meet and talk about the local area and the activities connected to it. The theme to be developed for this event is "Wine and Land".
The 8 applicants selected will be paid, upon delivery of the finished project, a contribution of € 300.00 and the winner of the competition will receive the single award of € 2,000.00.

REGULATIONS

PARTICIPANTS
The competition is open to video makers, individuals or groups, residing in Italy, Austria, Slovenia and Croatia.

PRE-SELECTION
The applications must be received via email at fabiano@cecudine.org, by and no later than 15 June 2016, complete with these regulations signed as acceptance, the information sheet filled out in full, a copy of a valid identity document (sheet and document of a representative in the case of groups), the curriculum, the description of the subject proposed (no longer than a "page" of 1,500 characters) and a link to a show reel and/or the most representative productions of the applicant.
A maximum of 8 (eight) projects will be selected from the applicant works, created by individuals or groups of producers, who will be notified via email of their admission to the creation phase of the competition.

WORKS
The video makers selected must produce an original video, without any restriction, lasting a maximum of 2 minutes (excluding the opening and closing credits). The theme chosen for this year's event is "Wine and Land". We wish to specify that the work must not include advertising messages for companies, winegrowers or commercial activities. The shooting must be done exclusively in the region.

The entire production must take place during the days following the communication of admission to the competition.
The works, in Apple ProRes, DNx HD format in addition to a version on flash drive, must reach the headquarters of the CEC – Centro Espressioni Cinematografiche in via Villalta, 24 in Udine, by 6:00 p.m. on 28 October 2016.
For foreign films or those in the Friuli language, the file with subtitles in Italian or English in .srt. or .stl format must be attached.
Every single creator will be directly responsible for the contents of his project and neither the Organisation nor the Jury will be in any way responsible.
Material which is received incomplete and illegible will not be considered.
The Organisation does not assume responsibility for possible theft, damages or loss of the works.
For any information the email address is: fabiano@cecudine.org

JURY
A quality jury composed of industry experts and institutional representatives will evaluate and judge the works selected and give the award for the best short film.

PRIZES
The projects selected will be awarded € 300.00 (three hundred/00) upon delivery of the final work. Groups of creators will be considered as a single participant. The winner will be awarded the single € 2.000 (two thousand/00) prize.
After the delivery of the videos an event will be organised, on a date to be established, at the Villa di Toppo Florio in Buttrio during which the videos selected will be screened and the winner announced.

USE OF THE WORKS AND COPYRIGHT
The Participant, by accepting these regulations, also declares, under his own responsibility, that he is the sole Author of the works presented at the Friulano in corto competition, that he is the exclusive owner of the relative copyrights, both of the images and the soundtrack. Furthermore he declares that any people depicted, in accordance with Italian Legislative Decree 196/2003, have provided their consent to the processing of their personal data, including sensitive data, for the purposes connected to participation in this competition and that they have granted the reproduction, broadcasting and user rights of their images to the Author of the work and that they do not claim any user right, even financial, to the images. Therefore, the Participant undertakes to hold the entire Organisation harmless from any liability towards third parties. Every Author is responsible for the contents of the works submitted and authorises their use and publication.
The Participant authorises Pro Loco Buri and anyone appointed by them, to publish photographs and information regarding their work in order to promote the event hosting the competition in daily, weekly and monthly newspapers.

By participating in the competition, the Authors commit to inserting in the credits of the work the wording "realizzata con il patrocinio dell'ERSA e il sostegno del Comune di Buttrio", as well as their respective logos. They also undertake to report possible subsequent screenings to allow ERSA and the Organisation to attend and promote them through their own channels, granting Pro Loco Buri the user rights to the work without requesting any compensation, as an example but not limited to, for all the institutional, communication and promotional activities of Pro Loco Buri, Municipality of Buttrio, Friuli Venezia Giulia Autonomous Region and ERSA, excluding uses of a commercial nature, without prejudice to the right of the Author of the work to be cited as such and to retain ownership to it, as well as freedom to use it.
The author, for his part, forbids the use of the works created in contexts that harm his own personal dignity, exempting Pro Loco Buri as of now from any liability for possible improper use of the works by third parties.

PRIVACY
Pursuant to Art. 11 of Italian Legislative Decree No. 196/03 (Privacy Code), we wish to inform you that the videos and curriculum vitae for the participation will be filed at Pro Loco Buri, they will be used for the purposes provided by these regulations and may be disclosed during the implementation of the initiatives provided by the regulations.
The applicant expressly authorises Pro Loco Buri, as well as their direct delegates, to process the personal data of the participating Author in accordance with Italian Legislative Decree 196/2003 (Privacy Code), also for purposes of inclusion in the databases managed by the aforementioned individuals.
The personal data, the videos included on the site, or the films/videos shot by the Organisation during an event, to promote the Authors and itself, web promotion, communication or marketing, may be used by the Organisation without having to necessarily request the consent of the parties.
Any dispute will be handled in Italy in accordance with Italian law.
